

PARKSIDE CONDOMINIUM

ADMINISTRATIVE RESOLUTION NO. II.3.A

CODE OF ETHICS AND RULES OF CONDUCT FOR VOLUNTEER BOARD MEMBERS, OFFICERS, AND COMMITTEE MEMBERS

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of Parkside Condominium has the power and the responsibility to make decisions for the entire community, and

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors is responsible to appoint officers and committee members, and

WHEREAS, the volunteer leaders of the Association are responsible to set a standard and a tone for behavior that is conducive to the best interests of the entire community,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT the Board of Directors of Parkside Condominium hereby adopts the following rules of conduct, standards of behavior, ethical rules, and enforcement procedures that are applicable to all volunteers serving the community:

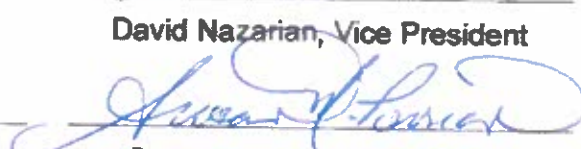

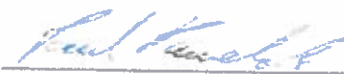

1. All volunteers will use their best efforts at all times to make decisions that are consistent with high principles, and to protect and enhance the safety and property value of the residents.
2. No gifts of any type worth $20.00 or more will be accepted from any resident, contractor, or supplier.
3. No contributions will be made to any political parties or political candidates by the Association.
4. Confidentiality of other Board members' personal lives, all residents' personal lives as well as employees' personal lives, will be protected by the Board officers and Committee members.
5. No interference between volunteers and the Parkside Management employees will be undertaken.
6. No promise of anything not approved by the Board as a whole can be made to any subcontractor, supplier, or contractor during negotiations.
7. No drugs, alcohol, or substance abuse will be tolerated.
8. Any volunteer convicted of a felony will voluntarily resign from his/her position.

9. Board members will immediately remove any volunteer from such positions as officers or committee positions if said person has been convicted of a felony.
10. Any Board member under investigation for a felony will request a leave of absence from the Board of Directors during the investigation and trial period.
11. Language at Board and Committee meetings will be kept professional. Personal attacks against owners, residents, officers, and directors are prohibited and are not consistent with the best interests of the community.
12. It is understood that differences of opinion will exist at Board and Committee meetings. They should be expressed in a clear and business-like fashion.
13. Proper parliamentary procedure should be followed to have such dissenting positions stated clearly within the official records of the Association, i.e., Board and Committee meeting minutes.
14. A volunteer may not knowingly misrepresent any facts to anyone involved in anything with the community which would benefit himself/herself in any way.
15. No volunteer serving the community may use his/her position to enhance his/her financial status through the use of certain contractors or suppliers. Any potential conflict of interest must be exposed to the other volunteers, especially to the Board of Directors.
16. The Board of Directors will address the community at the first Board Meeting following the Annual Meeting and agree to abide by this Code of Ethics and will sign the Code of Ethics.
17. This Resolution of Rules of Conduct will be framed and kept posted in the Association's office. Each new volunteer will be given a copy of this Resolution and will be asked to sign a certificate that they have received a copy of this Resolution and have read it and agree to abide by it.
18. Violations of the Code of Ethics will be brought to the Board of Directors for a hearing.
19. The attorney, management agent, and accountant, for the Association can serve as Advisory Hearing Board members if requested by the Board of Directors.

No provision of this resolution can be rescinded, altered, and/or amended without unanimous vote of the members of the Board of Directors.
